

Table of Contents

Preface	V
Authors.....	XV

§ 1. INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL DUE DILIGENCE

A. The role of due diligence in M&A transactions.....	1
B. Reasons for conducting due diligence.....	2
C. Areas of due diligence.....	2
D. Overlaps of the legal due diligence with other due diligence workstreams	3
I. Financial due diligence.....	3
II. Tax due diligence.....	4
III. HR due diligence.....	4
IV. Pensions due diligence	5
V. Commercial due diligence.....	5
VI. Environmental due diligence	6

§ 2. PREPARATION OF THE LEGAL DUE DILIGENCE BY THE SELLER

A. Organization on the sell-side.....	8
I. Efficiency vs confidentiality	8
II. Team organization of the document collection	9
B. Preparation of the data room	9
I. Virtual data room (VDR).....	9
II. Collection of documents.....	10
III. Organization of the documents in the data room.....	13
IV. Access of designated purchaser or bidders to the documents.....	14
C. Q&A	15
I. Organization of the Q&A process.....	15
II. Use of electronic Q&A tools.....	16
III. Q&A communication process.....	16
IV. Answering bidder question	17
D. Management presentations, expert sessions and site visits.....	18
I. Significance of management presentations and expert sessions.....	18
II. Organization of management presentations and expert sessions	18
III. Documentation of exchanges in the due diligence outside the data room.....	19

§ 3. RESTRICTIONS FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION IN THE DUE DILIGENCE

A. Reasons for disclosure restrictions	22
I. Contractual confidentiality obligations	22
II. Disclosure restrictions under antitrust laws	23
III. Disclosure restrictions under corporate law or securities laws.....	27
IV. Disclosure restrictions under data protection laws	29
V. Business reasons for disclosure restrictions	31
B. Protection of restricted information.....	32
I. Confidentiality agreements.....	32
II. Staggered disclosure.....	39

§ 4. PREPARATION OF THE LEGAL DUE DILIGENCE BY THE PURCHASER

A. Organizational set-up	44
I. Collaboration of the legal due diligence with other workstreams	44
II. Legal team organization	45
B. Scoping the due diligence	49
I. Surgical vs. full-fledged scope	49
II. Criteria for scoping the due diligence	50
III. Process and tools for scoping	53
C. Budgeting and monitoring legal costs	53
I. Cost budgeting	53
II. Cost drivers	54
III. Cost monitoring	54
IV. Tracking of progress	55

§ 5. REVIEW OF INFORMATION IN THE LEGAL DUE DILIGENCE

A. Preparation of the review	57
I. Initial information from the principal	57
II. Review of public information	58
III. Kick-off meeting with the seller or target	58
B. Organization of the review	59
I. Instruction of review team	59
II. Allocation of documents and review responsibilities	60
III. Making documents available for review	61
IV. Kick-off meeting of the review team	61
V. Improvisation	62
C. Conduct of the review	62
I. Overview of completeness and quality of the data room	62
II. Initial gap analysis	63
III. Requests for missing documents	63
IV. Detailed review	63
V. Efficient collection of findings	64
VI. Monitoring of the data room for new documents	64
D. Q&A	65
I. Further sources of information in the due diligence process	66
II. Interim communication in the review team	67

§ 6. DUE DILIGENCE REPORTING

A. Forms of due diligence reporting	69
I. Due diligence report	69
II. Executive summary	70
III. Other forms of reporting	70
IV. Draft report versus final report	71
B. Structure and content of the due diligence report	71
I. Elements of the due diligence report	71
II. Introductory note	72
III. Executive summary	72
IV. Quality of information and status of review	72
V. Detailed presentation	73
V. Schedules to the report	78
VI. New approaches to preparing the due diligence report	78
VII. Due diligence reporting through a database	79
C. Disclosure of due diligence reports to third parties	80
I. Sharing of due diligence findings with other advisors	80
II. Disclosure to financial institutions under a reliance letter	80
III. Disclosure to insurance providers under a non-reliance letter	81

IV. Loss of legal privilege	81
V. Practical considerations	82

§ 7. LEGAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT

A. Introduction.....	83
B. Context of Legal Project Management	84
I. What it is.....	84
II. Growth of importance.....	86
III. LPM Framework.....	86
C. Legal Tech	92
I. General aspects	92
II. Possible applications in due diligence	93
III. Innovative developments.....	97
IV. Challenges and risks	98

§ 8. RELEVANCE OF THE DUE DILIGENCE FOR THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE TRANSACTION PARTIES

A. Possible reactions of the purchaser to the due diligence findings.....	101
B. Relevance of the due diligence for the SPA parties	106
I. Due diligence and purchaser knowledge	106
II. Statutory liability for wrongful disclosure	108
C. Access to due diligence findings in a post-M&A dispute.....	112
I. Access to the data room after closing.....	113
II. Substantive rights of access to due diligence information	114
III. Procedural orders regarding access to due diligence information.....	114

§ 9. LEGAL DUE DILIGENCE FOR PARTICULAR TYPES OF TRANSACTIONS

A. Acquisitions of privately-held small companies.....	118
I. Building trust with private owners.....	118
II. Information requests	119
III. Areas of relevance for the due diligence	120
B. Transactions involving start-up companies.....	121
I. General challenges for the due diligence of a start-up company.....	121
II. Corporate matters	122
III. Debt financing.....	124
IV. Technology.....	125
V. Employment matters	126
VI. Regulatory	127
VII. Responses to due diligence findings.....	127
C. Acquisition of a business in distress	128
I. Businesses in distress as acquisition targets	128
II. Legal due diligence of a company in distress	129
D. Joint Venture.....	131
I. Characteristics of a joint venture.....	131
II. Due diligence for a joint venture.....	131
III. Sensitivity of the information exchange.....	132
IV. Issues under review for a joint venture.....	132
V. Consequences of due diligence findings	134
E. Takeover of a public company	134
I. Significance and timing of the due diligence.....	134
II. Information from publicly-available sources	135
III. Review of non-public information	136
IV. Review of defense instruments of the target	136
F. Transactions involving warranty & indemnity (W&I) insurance.....	138
I. Purpose and types of W&I Insurance	138

II. Key terms of W&I insurance.....	140
III. Impact of W&I insurance on the legal due diligence	140

§ 10. DUE DILIGENCE BY THE SELLER

A. Purposes and categories of seller due diligence	143
I. Pre-sale planning due diligence	144
II. Vendor due diligence.....	145
B. Types of vendor due diligence reports.....	148
I. Factual presentation and subjective statements.....	149
II. Differences to purchaser due diligence	149
C. Vendor due diligence reporting with or without reliance	151
I. Non-reliance letter	152
II. Reliance letter.....	153

§ 11. CORPORATE DUE DILIGENCE

A. Introduction.....	156
I. Challenges for the corporate due diligence	156
II. Overview of corporate topics.....	157
III. Public corporate information	157
B. Review and reporting of corporate matters.....	159
I. Reporting of descriptive corporate information.....	159
II. Reporting of corporate risks	160
C. Selected issues for the corporate due diligence	161
I. Due formation and valid existence of the company	161
II. Legal ownership of shares	162
III. Beneficial ownership of shares	167
IV. Encumbrances or other third-party rights regarding shares	168
V. Corporate housekeeping obligations	169
VI. Board or shareholder resolutions.....	169
VII. Risks of shareholder liability.....	170
VIII. Publicly listed subsidiaries.....	176
IX. Corporate governance	177
X. Historic M&A transactions, reorganizations and joint ventures.....	178
Annex I. Public registers in selected jurisdictions.....	183
Annex II. Sources of information about bankruptcy proceedings in selected jurisdictions.....	186
Annex III. Sources of disclosure of annual reports or other financial information.....	191
Annex IV. Representation of shares by share certificates	195
Annex V. Company types where the owners of shares are registered in a public register	198
Annex VI. Types of companies with shareholders listed in company registers.....	201

§ 12. FINANCING

A. The legal due diligence of financing arrangements in general	206
I. Significance of the financing structure for the transaction	206
II. Financing strategy of the purchaser	206
III. Scope and depth of the review	207
IV. Typical questions in the Q&A.....	209
B. Financing arrangements.....	210
I. Types of financing agreements.....	210
II. Term and termination/Change of control.....	212
III. Interest and other charges.....	218
IV. Break costs	220
V. Security	221
VI. Hedging	222
VII. Loans or deposits by non-financial institutions.....	223

§ 13. REAL ESTATE DUE DILIGENCE

A. Introduction.....	225
B. Owned real estate.....	226
I. Confirmation of legal title and encumbrances of real properties	226
II. Selected issues for due diligence with regard to the owned real estate	234
C. Leased real estate	236
I. Overview.....	236
II. Selected issues for the due diligence with regard to the leased real estate.....	237

§ 14. COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS

A. Understanding of the target's business	247
I. Industry, type of products or services and level of supply chain.....	247
II. Markets and countries where the target is active	248
III. Structure of procurement of products and services	249
IV. Structure of sale of products and services	250
B. Scope and depth of review and form of due diligence report.....	253
I. Scope and depth of review	253
II. Content and form of due diligence report	255
III. Work allocation with other due diligence workstreams.....	256
IV. Complete documentation and typical questions in Q&A.....	256
C. General issues in commercial contracts	257
I. Validity of the contract	257
II. Prices and payment.....	258
III. Liability and contractual penalties.....	260
IV. Term and termination.....	261
V. Change of control and assignment clauses	262
VI. General terms and conditions and standard contracts.....	263
VII. Competition law issues	264
D. Special issues in procurement and sales and distribution agreements	270
I. Procurement agreements	270
II. Sales and distribution agreements	272
Annex I to § 14	276
Annex II to § 14.....	287
Annex III to § 14.....	288
Annex IV to § 14.....	290
Annex V to § 14.....	293
Annex VI to § 14.....	294

§ 15. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

A. The IP due diligence in general	304
I. Challenges for the IP due diligence.....	304
II. Scope and depth of review in IP due diligence	305
B. Specific IP due diligence matters	309
I. Ownership and chain of title issues	309
II. Substantive validity and freedom to operate.....	317
C. IP license agreements	321
I. Understanding the IP exploitation strategy of the target.....	321
II. Common issues in IP licenses	321
D. R&D agreements	323
I. Commissioned development or research agreements.....	324
II. Joint research and development agreements.....	324

§ 16. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND DATA PROTECTION LAW

A. Information technology due diligence in general	328
I. Challenges in information technology due diligence	328
II. Scope and depth of review in the information technology due diligence	329
B. Individual information technology due diligence matters	330
I. Individually developed software	330
II. Off-the-shelf software	332
III. Other IT-related contracts (project, development, maintenance, service, hosting/housing agreements)	333
IV. Open-source software (OSS)	333
V. IT security	334
C. Data protection due diligence	334
I. Challenges for data protection due diligence	334
II. Scope and depth of review in the data protection due diligence	335
III. Basis of the data protection due diligence	338
IV. Specific data protection due diligence matters	339
V. Data transfer in an asset deal	344
VI. Other data privacy matters	347

§ 17. LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT

A. Labor and employment due diligence in general	350
I. Challenges for the labor and employment due diligence	350
II. Scope and depth of the review	352
III. Basis of the labor and employment due diligence	353
IV. Overview of the workforce	354
V. Labor law advice	354
VI. Labor relations	355
B. Individual employment terms	355
I. Employment terms of regular employees	355
II. Employee benefits	363
III. Equity-based compensation	366
IV. Management contracts	368
V. Flexible work time and part-time employees	370
C. Collective bargaining	371
I. Bodies of collective bargaining	371
II. Works councils	372
III. Other bodies of employee representation	374
IV. Works council agreements and collective bargaining agreements	374
D. Employee representation at board level	375
E. Labor reorganizations	376
I. Historic labor reorganizations	376
II. Contemplated future labor reorganization	378
III. Mass dismissals	378
F. Transfer of employees	378
I. Asset deal	378
II. Share deal	382
III. Group-wide bodies of employee representation	383
G. Labor compliance	383
I. Increasing importance of labor compliance	383
II. Due diligence review of labor compliance	384
H. Workers compensation	384
I. Labor disputes	385
I. Relevance of labor disputes	385
II. Due diligence of labor disputes	386
J. Strikes and lockout	386
K. Immigration and work permits	387
L. Non-employment forms of collaboration	388

I. Independent contractors.....	388
II. Personnel of temporary staffing agencies.....	389
III. Subcontractors.....	390
IV. Secondments.....	390

§ 18. PENSIONS

A. Challenges for the pensions due diligence.....	394
I. Legal vs. financial due diligence of pensions.....	394
II. Different pension systems.....	395
B. Impact of the nature of the contemplated transaction on pensions.....	397
I. Share acquisition.....	398
II. Asset acquisition.....	399
C. Due diligence of pension obligations.....	400
I. Identification of pension commitments.....	400
II. Valuation of pension obligations.....	401
III. Funding and support obligations triggered by the transaction.....	405
IV. Compliance with pension-related legal obligations and plan documentation.....	406
V. Trustee powers.....	408
D. Structural developments affecting pension obligations.....	408
I. Changes to pension benefits.....	409
II. Impact of historic M&A transaction on pensions.....	411
III. Outsourcing and spin-off of pension obligations.....	414
E. Impact of the contemplated transaction on pensions.....	416
I. Contemplated changes of pension schemes after closing.....	416
II. Contractual trust arrangements.....	417
III. Spin-off of pensions.....	417
IV. Allocation of burden between seller and purchaser.....	417

§ 19. ENVIRONMENTAL

A. Introduction.....	419
B. Site-related environmental compliance.....	420
I. Contamination.....	420
II. Industrial installations.....	425
III. Waste and waste water.....	427
C. Product-related environmental compliance.....	428
I. Extended producer responsibility, take-back obligations.....	428
II. Banned and restricted chemicals and raw materials.....	428
III. Environmental performance requirements, energy efficiency.....	429
D. Supply chain-related environmental compliance.....	431
I. Certain sourced input materials and products.....	431
II. Sustainable corporate governance.....	432

§ 20. OTHER REGULATORY AREAS

A. Transactions in the energy sector.....	434
I. Introduction.....	434
II. Key aspects of energy-related legal due diligence.....	435
III. Regulatory issues.....	437
IV. Energy projects in planning or under construction.....	439
V. New technology.....	440
B. Transactions in the healthcare sector.....	441
I. Introduction.....	441
II. Key aspects of healthcare-related legal due diligence.....	441
C. Transactions involving telecommunications regulation.....	445
I. Introduction.....	445
II. Key areas of the telecommunications regulatory due diligence.....	445
III. Recommendations to cover telecommunications regulatory risks.....	449

D. Subsidy law and EU State aid rules	449
I. Introduction.....	449
II. Key areas of the subsidy/State aid due diligence process.....	450
E. Procurement.....	454
I. Introduction.....	454
II. Key areas of the procurement due diligence.....	455

§ 21. FOREIGN INVESTMENT CONTROL

A. Relevance of foreign investment controlfor the due diligence	459
I. Recent international developments	460
II. Foreign investment control aspects in the due diligence.....	460
B. Overview of applicable foreign investment regulations	460
I. Recent international developments	460
II. European Union	463
III. Germany.....	463
IV. United States.....	471
C. Practical considerations.....	475
I. Step 1: Conduct an early risk assessment as part of the due diligence	475
II. Step 2: Craft a comprehensive regulatory, government affairs and public affairs strategy.....	475

§ 22. COMPLIANCE

A. Introduction.....	477
B. Conducting compliance due diligence.....	479
I. Objectives of compliance due diligence	479
II. Conduct of review	480
III. Procedural integration of the compliance review in the overall M&A process.....	486
IV. Review of compliance management systems according to IDW PS 980	488
V. Corporate internal investigations.....	490
C. Focus areas of compliance due diligence	491
I. Antitrust	491
II. Anti-bribery/Anti-corruption	492
III. Anti-money laundering/counterterrorist financing	494
IV. Data protection and IT security.....	495
V. Modern slavery	496
VI. Technical compliance.....	497

§ 23. LIABILITY, INSURANCE AND LITIGATION

A. Liability	499
I. Liability risks in general.....	499
II. Liability risks in connection with the products of the target.....	500
III. Review and reporting of liability risks in the due diligence.....	502
IV. Description of liability risks in the due diligence report.....	504
B. Insurance	505
I. Purposes of the due diligence of insurance matters.....	505
II. Key issues for the legal due diligence of insurance matters	506
III. Review of insurance policies.....	507
IV. Reflection of due diligence findings in the SPA.....	509
C. Litigation.....	510
I. Information about litigation cases.....	510
II. Review of litigation in the due diligence.....	511
Glossary.....	513